

The NJ no call rule has finally put an end to the countless calls that I use to receive on a daily basis. Finally my answering machine has free space to take messages from friends and family as opposed to being filled up with promotional calls. The only way to improve on this bill would be to include political calls on the no-call list. Please preserve the NO_CALL_List